COMPLAINTS HANDLING POLICY
Complaints Management – Education Queensland

During the course of children’s school years, parents and carers may have cause to make a complaint about an issue with your child’s education. Education Queensland is committed to ensuring that all complaints are dealt with in a fair and equitable manner. There are processes and support structures in place to enable parents/carers and students to work through any issues they may have with Education Queensland provisions.

When making a complaint, it is in the best interest of complaint resolution to ensure that parents/carers:
• provide complete and factual information in a timely manner
• deliver their complaint in a non-threatening and non-abusive manner and
• not make frivolous or vexatious complaints, or include deliberately false or misleading information.

Parents and carers should be aware that if you are making a complaint about a staff member, that in most instances the staff member will be told of the complaint and offered the right of reply. Parents and carers have the right to have a support person participate throughout the process.

If the complaint relates to suspected official misconduct or criminal activity then it should be made directly to the Crime and Misconduct Commission (www.cmc.qld.gov.au) or the Queensland Police Service (www.police.qld.gov.au).

The following 5-step procedure is recommended to be followed to assist parents/carers, and school staff to reach an outcome that is in the best interests of the student.

1. Discuss your complaint with the class teacher
If a parent/carer has a complaint is with their child’s teacher or relates to an issue concerning their child’s experience at school, make an appointment with that teacher as soon as possible through the school administration. This provides the teacher with an opportunity to advise parents/carers all they know about the incident or problem. Together, both parents/carers and teachers, should then take steps to resolve the problem at this level.

The teacher will make a record of the complaint (in the form of Attachment A) and report the meeting and any outcomes to their line manager.

2. Discuss your complaint with the principal/line manager or ask the principal/line manager to assist by participating in informal conflict resolution
Where the teacher has been approached as above but the issue remains unresolved, parents/carers are encouraged to an appointment with the school principal to discuss the issue further. Alternatively, it may be agreed between the parent/carer and the teacher, that the school principal act as a go-between in informal conflict resolution in an attempt to resolve the problem.
If the complaint is related to the school more generally including issues of school policy or its compliance or non-compliance those complaints should be raised directly with the principal. Complaints to the principal may be lodged in person, by telephone, writing.

3. Contact district office
If the issue has been discussed with the school principal and the parent/carer feels that the complaint has not been addressed, parents/carers have the right to contact Brian Ragh, Assistant Regional Director oversees activities of some schools in the Region and Russell Island SS is included in that group. Complaints may be lodged by telephone or in writing. Complaints should be specific in detail, and outline the steps taken to date to resolve the issue. A complaint made in writing should be signed, with the date, the complainant’s full name and address and full details of the complaint contained in it. The district office will make a record of your complaint.

Anonymous complaints will only be acted upon if enough information is provided to allow for follow up with the principal.

When you contact the district office you will be advised that your name and the nature of your issue will be reported back to the principal of your school. Staff at the district office will assist in seeking resolution to the issue.

4. Complaint still not resolved
If, as a parent/carer you feel that your issue has not been resolved through the district office process, you have a further right to make a complaint to the central office of Education Queensland.

Parents/carers may choose to progress their complaint in writing to the Deputy Director-General Education Queensland. The Office of Education Queensland will seek to assist with the resolution of your complaint through referral:
• to the Executive Director (Schools) for further action or
• to another departmental unit for appropriate action.

Complaints Management – In-School Procedure
Russell Island State School documents all complaints. Complaints are recorded and reported as soon as practicable after receiving the complaint. Any member of staff can receive a complaint.
When a staff member receives a verbal complaint they:

- Listen carefully to the issues being raised
- Summarise the issues to clarify and check that you understand what the complainant is telling you
- Empathise and acknowledge the complainant’s feelings
- Find out what the complainant wants to happen as a result of the complaint
- Tell the complainant that they may use the support of a third party in progressing the complaint, if they feel this is needed
- Resolve the complaint if possible, or assure the complainant that an appropriate staff member will address their complaint
- Tell the complainant of what will happen with their complaint
- Thank them for their complaint

When the complaint is not resolved immediately, the complaint is referred to the Principal as soon as practicable.

A member of staff who receives a verbal complaint that is not resolved, informs the complainant of the further options of:

- Putting their complaint in writing; or
- Assisting the member of staff to record, in writing, the particulars of their complaint

If the complainant agrees to put the complaint in writing, the member of staff takes no further action unless or until a written complaint is received. (This does not apply to a report about physical/emotional/sexual harm – these are mandatory reporting. See HS-17 Student Protection Policy).

Once a complainant indicates that they would like to register a formal complaint verbally, the member of staff makes a written outline of the issues concerned.

- Read the record to the complainant
- Give an opportunity for amendments to be made
- Have the complainant sign the complaint
- (The staff member) Sign with signature, date and personal delegation

The In-School Investigation and Complaint Form (Attachment A) needs to be completed.
